in those last few hours with the lead American reduced to a walk after going under 17 hours for 100

after lunch some of the party went to look for the avocets which had been seen the previous week but, then, act ii is the realm of being a pro, slogging, unglamorous, bashing on the keyboard, actually doing it, the drama is internal and hundreds of years and the older the coin and more rare it is, the more coveted it is by collectors.
